Bubbles & Bliss

The 30th anniversary celebration of the Scottsdale Culinary Festival

Who: Champagne and chocolate lovers of the Valley can satisfy their sweet tooth while giving back to art education programs.

What: In honor of the Scottsdale Culinary Festival's 30th anniversary, the Scottsdale League for the Arts has created a new and exciting Saturday evening event that will have guests bubbling over with delight. This intimate and elegant soiree for the senses will take place in the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art, which will be illuminated with soft, flickering candlelight and decorated with fresh, brightly colored floral and greenery arrangements. Guests can step out in their favorite cocktail attire and indulge on Chandon Champagne, chocolate covered strawberries, delectable mini crème brulees and velvety New York cheesecake bites, as they peruse a selection of paintings by Ludvic. His paintings have been hung in galleries and universities all over the country and reflect a Mediterranean style from the 17th century.

Visit www.Ludvic.com for more information on the artist. For more information about Bubbles & Bliss or to purchase tickets, visit www.ScottsdaleCulinaryFestival.org

When: Saturday, April 12 from 7-10 p.m.
Bubbles and Bliss
