Culinary Fest Transforms Civic Center in April “Eat, Drink and Be Pretty” party is Friday April 11

Scottsdale, Ariz. (February 2008) – Drinks will be flowing, cuisine will be abundant and live music will fill the air as the 30th annual Scottsdale Culinary Festival transforms the Scottsdale Center for the Arts into a spectacular culinary experience called “The Eat, Drink and Be Pretty Party,” Friday, April 11 from 7 to 11 p.m.

“This event is unlike any other in the Valley,” event chairman Pat Chang said. “The energy of the guests and the lively atmosphere of food, drinks and live music is what this event is all about.”

The event features more than twenty restaurants and caterers including T. Cook’s at Royal Palms, Alice Cooperstown, Armadillo Grill, Lulu’s Cupcakes, disb market and wine bistro, Talavera and Malee’s Thai Bistro. Libations consist of an impressive selection of global wines and cordials and Absolut vodka cocktails.

Local band Rock Lobster will be rocking out under the stars on the main stage and the Tommy Eggleston band will fill the indoors with music.

Tickets for “The Eat, Drink and Be Pretty Party,” including food and wine tasting, are $55 in advance and $65 at the door.
